Nurse Stimpy

OUTLINE

DONE

Ren wakes up sick one morning and Stimpy is instantly concerned.

He dons his nurse's outfit and nurtures Ren through his malaise.

Stimpy won't let Ren do anything for himself, which drives Ren crazy.

He also performs all kinds of humiliating tests on him; taking his temperature, doing x-rays, giving him a sponge bath, making him eat horrible hospital food, like creamed peas, etc.

The humor in this story comes out of Ren and Stimpy's wonderful relationship.

Stimpy works himself so hard caring for his beloved Ren, that he ends up sick himself, just as Ren recovers.

Now, it's Ren's turn!

The end.

SIDE NOTES:

This story is a sit-com, so Ren and Stimpy have a home, like Woody Woodpecker, in a hole in a tree.
